In the final Group B match of the Asia Cup, Afghanistan lost to Sri Lanka by 6 wickets, securing Super Four spots for both Sri Lanka and Bangladesh.

Sri Lanka booked their place in the Super Four of the Asia Cup with a win over Afghanistan in the final Group B match. At the same time, Bangladesh also secured their spot in the next stage.

On Thursday (18 September) at Sheikh Zayed Stadium in Abu Dhabi, Afghanistan won the toss and chose to bat first, posting a challenging total of 169 runs. In response, Sri Lanka chased down the target with 8 balls to spare, winning by 6 wickets.

During the match, commentator Russell Arnold remarked that Sri Lanka's victory was being celebrated not just in Colombo but also in cities across Bangladesh like Dhaka. The outcome of the Afghanistan-Sri Lanka match was crucial for determining the Super Four qualification of Liton Das and Mustafizur Rahman.
