

Kemar Roach Bamboozles Shan Masood With A Ripper In Multan Test

Shan Masood, Pakistan's skipper, faced an unfortunate early exit in the 2nd Test match against the West Indies at the Multan Cricket Stadium. The left-handed batter was dismissed after scoring just 15 runs, leaving Pakistan in a tricky position on Day 1 of their first innings.

Kemar Roach Bamboozles Shan Masood With A Ripper In Multan Test Shan Masood, Pakistan's skipper, faced an unfortunate early exit in the 2nd Test match against the West Indies at the Multan Cricket Stadium. The left-handed batter was dismissed after scoring just 15 runs, leaving Pakistan in a tricky position on Day 1 of their first innings. West Indies pacer Kemar Roach delivered a stunning blow to Pakistan in the 8th over of the innings. On the third ball of the over, Roach bowled a beauty of a delivery to send Masood packing.

story continues

West Indies pacer Kemar Roach delivered a stunning blow to Pakistan in the 8th over of the innings. On the third ball of the over, Roach bowled a beauty of a delivery to send Masood packing.

story continuThe ball was pitched on a good length and came in sharply from around the wicket at 128 kmph. Masood attempted an ambitious drive away from his body but left a gap between his bat and pad. The ball brushed his front pad and crashed into the stumps, leaving the Pakistani skipper stunned.