BNP Chairperson Tarique Rahman has expressed strong optimism about his party's prospects in the 13th National Parliamentary Election. He shared his views with journalists on Thursday afternoon in Gulshan, Dhaka.

Tarique Rahman stated that if the election is held in a free, fair, and controversy-free manner, all political parties should accept the outcome. He described the day as significant and memorable for the country's nearly 130 million voters.

Expressing satisfaction over voter participation, he said that if citizens are able to cast their votes peacefully and without obstruction, it would mark a genuine step forward for democracy.

Earlier in the morning at 9:40 am, he cast his vote at Gulshan Model School and College, accompanied by his wife, Dr. Zubaida Rahman, and his daughter, Barrister Zaima Rahman.

After voting, he reiterated his confidence in victory and said that if elected by the people, improving law and order would be a priority.

Responding to a question, he added that active voter participation can thwart any conspiracy.

In this election, Tarique Rahman is contesting from the Dhaka-17 and Bogura-6 constituencies.
