The moon has seen, Siam starts in the country from tomorrow

Ramadan Moon

The moon of the holy month of Ramadan was seen in the sky of the country on Saturday. Fasting begins tomorrow on Sunday. The decision was taken at a meeting of the National Moon Viewing Committee in the chair of the National Mosque Baitul Mukarram. The Islamic Foundation said in a press release

The moon has seen, Siam starts in the country from tomorrow..

The moon of the holy month of Ramadan was seen in the sky of the country on Saturday. Fasting begins tomorrow on Sunday.The decision was taken at a meeting of the National Moon Viewing Committee in the chair of the National Mosque Baitul Mukarram. The Islamic Foundation said in a press releaAccording to the decision of the National Moon Viewing Committee, the counting of holy Ramadan will begin from Sunday, March 2. This will be celebrated on Thursday night, the holy body.

Religious Muslims will offer Tarabi prayers tonight as the moon is seen during the month of Ramadan. Fasting from tomorrow by eating sahari at night.