

Daily Amar Desh accused of spreading rumors against Nahid and Asif

Amar Desh Paper

Today, on January 30, 2025, the daily Amar Desh newspaper published the news that "Nahid-Asif is going to resign". The published news also informed that Mahfuz Alam may resign in June. Besides, Nahid will be the member secretary of the new political party. The party will be moderate. It is also said in the news of Amara Desh Patria that between February 15, government information advisor Nahid, youth and sports advisor Asif are going to resign. Apart from this, another adviser, Mahfuz, will step down in June.

There is already a lot of criticism on social media. Besides, a self-confessed central official who did not want to be named told "Lens Asia" that my country published such fake news to tarnish the image of the government. We will check if any Awami League is behind it. Also, we strongly condemn and protest for the publication of such false news by my country newspaper.

Besides coordinator Md. A verified Facebook ID named Mahin Sarkar said, "I or we have not heard that Nahid bhai, Asif bhai or Mahfuz bhai are resigning soon. Where did my country get the newspaper from?"

Currently Amar Desh is a national and reputed newspaper. However, the common people claim that many people have lost their faith due to the false news published today. In addition, many people have strongly criticized and protested on social media.
