

Opportunity to Build a New Bangladesh: Chief Adviser

Collected picture

Professor Dr. Muhammad Yunus, Chief Adviser of the interim government, has called on citizens to take part in shaping a new Bangladesh. He delivered the message on Thursday (12 February) after casting his vote in Gulshan, Dhaka.

Dr. Yunus said that beginning today, the nation has the chance to rebuild Bangladesh at every level. He described the moment as the start of a new chapter and encouraged people to come together in a spirit of unity and celebration. He urged citizens to participate in the referendum in a festive and positive atmosphere.

He further remarked that the day marks both relief and renewal — the end of a difficult period and the beginning of new aspirations. Extending his greetings, he congratulated the people on the occasion.

The Chief Adviser cast his vote at Gulshan Model High School and College in the capital.