The people are disadvantaged when the BNP disbelievesThe party's chairperson's adviser Zainul Abidin Farooq said the loss would be to the people if the BNP disbelieves,

Zainul Abidin Farooq said, "Do not delay the elections by creating a crisis in the current politics of the country. Whatever the need is reformed and announced the date of an election. Damage if delayed. If we disbelieve us, the loss will be the people. Ershad could not hurt the BNP, Sheikh Hasina could not do it, no one else could. 'Referring to the chief adviser, he said, 'You are honorable, have increased our honor. I will never let you down. If you really understand the people, do not delay the election. '

The big devil has not yet been captured, Farooq said, "The ears are not speaking, not Aboltabol, doing Devil Hunt but the big devil has not yet been captured. Those who were the big devil, if anyone had not participated in the election of this big devil in the 21st, Sheikh Hasina would have left that day. We went to the polls in the 21st, believed in Sheikh Hasina after drinking tea and biscuits, set fire to the house of that belief. The vote of the day at night. He is also the unhappiness. '
