

Adib is the senior joint convener of the new party

The new political party of the youth is going to debut with the name of the National Citizens Party. It has also been decided who is already in the top post in this party, which is being launched by the National Citizens Committee and the anti -discrimination student movement

The new political party of the youth is going to debut with the name of the National Citizens Party. It has also been decided who is already in the top post in this party, which is being launched by the National Citizens Committee and the anti -discrimination student movement. Ariful Islam Adib, a former student of Jahangirnagar University, has become senior joint convener in the new political party. Also new, Samantha Sharmin, Senior Joint Member Secretary Tasnim Zara and Nahida Sarwar Niba for the post of senior joint convener.,

If all goes well, the new team will debut on Friday . The new team will be launched on Manik Mia Avenue in the capital. The names of the nominees will be announced there. Earlier, Nahid Islam had resigned from the interim government to take charge of the new party. Meanwhile, the Bangladesh Democratic Student Parliament has debuted under the leadership of former coordinators who played a role in the July-August movement on Wednesday. Abu Bakar Majumder became the convener of the organization and Zahid Ahsan became the member secretary. Among the top people of the group, the names of those who were already known are; Nahid Islam and Member Secretary for the post of convener, Akhtar Hossain, Nasiruddin Patwari chief coordinator, Hasnat Abdullah is the chief organizer of the southern and Sarjis Alam is the chief organizer of the north.

A joint meeting of the National Citizens Committee and the anti -discrimination student movement was held at the central office of the National Citizens Committee in Banglamotar in the capital on Thursday. There are these decisions. The four leaders of the National Citizens Committee who participated in the meeting confirmed the names of the party and the leadership in which the leadership was finalized, Ariful Islam Adib, a former student of Jahangirnagar University, has become senior joint convener in the new political party. Also new, Samantha Sharmin, Senior Joint Member Secretary Tasnim Zara and Nahida Sarwar Niba for the post of senior joint convener