Touhid Afridi, accused of threatening content creators in July to produce pro-AL content, and also charged in a murder case, has been arrested by CID police in a special operation in Barishal.

In a special operation in Barishal, CID police arrested Touhid Afridi, widely known as a close aide of DB Harun. According to sources, in July, he threatened several content creators, forcing them to make content in favor of the ruling Awami League.

Afridi is also an accused in a murder case and has multiple allegations of serious crimes against him. Law enforcement agencies had been monitoring his activities for a long time, and finally, CID succeeded in detaining him through a special operation in Barishal.
