Pakistani Actress Hania Aamir to Visit Bangladesh for the First Time

Collected picture

Popular Pakistani actress Hania Aamir has announced that she will soon be visiting Bangladesh for the very first time. In a video message, she greeted her Bangladeshi fans and confirmed her upcoming trip to Dhaka.

One of Pakistan's most popular actresses, Hania Aamir, has brought exciting news for her fans. Through hit dramas like Mujhe Pyaar Hua Tha, Mere Humsafar, Sang-e-Mah, Anaa, and Dilruba, she has gained immense popularity not only in Pakistan but also in Bangladesh.

In a video message, Hania said: "Hi Bangladesh, this is Hania. I am coming to Dhaka, see you all soon!" Her announcement has sparked excitement among Bangladeshi fans.

Born on February 12, 1997, in Rawalpindi, Pakistan, Hania Aamir began her acting career in 2016 with the film Janaan. Alongside her remarkable rise in television and cinema, her lively personality, charming looks, and fashion sense have made her especially popular among the younger generation. Today, she is regarded as one of Pakistan's highest-paid and most-followed actresses.