

New youth-led political party to be named Jatiya Nagorik Party

Nahid Islam has been appointed as the convener, and Akhtar Hossain will serve as the general secretary. The new political party, an initiative by the National Citizens Committee and the Anti-Discrimination Student Movement, will be named the Jatiya Nagorik Party. It will be officially launched on Friday. Nahid Islam has been appointed as the convener, and Akhtar Hossain will serve as the member secretary of the youth-led political party. Additionally, Hasnat Abdullah has been appointed as the chief organizer for the southern region, Sarjis Alam as the chief organizer for the northern region, and Nasiruddin Patwary as the chief coordinator. Meanwhile, Sarjis Alam shared the announcement in a Facebook post on Thursday. Banners bearing this name will be raised across the country. Let Bangladesh resonate with this name," he wrote. He said that the new party would uphold the spirit of the July uprising in its political course.
